

Examples of food which is prepacked for direct sale

- Sandwiches packaged by the food business and sold or offered from the same premises.
- Fast food which is wrapped or packaged before a customer selects or orders it.
- Bakery products which are packaged before a customer selects them.
- Supermarket products which are produced and packaged in store, such as pizzas, rotisserie chicken, pre-weighed and packed cheese and meats and baked products.
- Free samples of cakes if they are packaged at the premises.
- Food packaged and sold by the same business at a market stall.
- Burgers and sausages packaged by a butcher on premises for sale.

